May 18 2022 Conversation with Jesus

Peace is only a thought away

Deb: Today I'm asking you to elaborate on the bridge concept we've been exploring. What other bridges do you want me to connect with today, Lord Jesus?

Jesus: Great question, Deb. You have picked up on a Truth that I've been showing you. Let's go deeper today.

Deb: I'm all for that, Lord. Where do you want to take me?

Jesus: First let's go to heaven together. I want to show you my garden and the sweet, wooden walking bridge that connects one mound of flowers to another over a perfectly loud babbling brook.

Deb: Wow, Lord. I can see it. I can feel the cool, friendly grass beneath my feet and the flowers are lovely beyond description. Each one is perfectly shaped and perfectly placed. Oh, and they move to give room for us as we walk through!

Jesus: Yes, and don't be concerned if you step on one because they can't feel your weight. They bounce back right away, laughing at the experience of having an "isha" (woman) step on them! They only get to see my man-creations when I bring people here, like you, while you're still in your earthly body. When you die and get your glorified body, it's different, and the flowers know it.

Deb: What a strange concept, yet I understand what you're saying. You've co-located me here in heaven while I'm still on earth which makes for a unique presentation of the flesh in heaven. Is my flesh in heaven at all? Or only my spirit?

Jesus: Yes.

Deb: Hahahaha. I figured. A little quantum physics, I assume?

Jesus: You assume rightly, my precious little one.

Deb: I really want to understand the whole quantum physics thing better. Teach me, Lord!

Jesus: I am, and I will. Science is such a rich platform to reveal my Glory. Not even the enemy can deny the laws of the Universe, the laws of physics – because I made them, so they are true no matter who tries to deny them. Everything exists as energy, in wave patterns. The waves only collapse into particles when observed. So because man is the observer, things on earth appear to be solid. At another level, they are simply energy that has taken specific shape.

That's enough of the science lesson for now. What I want you to focus on, Deb, is that because of your alignment with me, the Triune God, you have obtained eternal bliss with us. It started the moment you dedicated yourself back to us. Therefore, you can tap into another realm, the spirit-realm, now. You don't have to wait to die in order to visit here.

Deb: I love that, Jesus. That is so cool. Ever since I was a child I've wanted to understand "spirit". You know that about me; you made me that way so of course you know that.

Jesus: (Laughing...)

Deb: Take me across this bridge, Lord, to the next-other side that you want to show me. I am so ready for the adventure I can hardly contain myself.

Jesus: As you have asked, so it is done for you, my precious Deborah. Here we go!

Together we start walking across the bridge in Jesus' garden. We walk very slowly, taking in the details of everything in sight. Never rushing. There is more than enough time to savor and take it all in. I know that whatever is next will not be delayed and will definitely not disappoint.

Reflection #1: As I think about what I just wrote about visiting the bridge in Jesus' garden with him I feel honored, privileged, special. I know in my heart that it is a unique, special place in heaven that he has reserved for our conversations. I feel like I can go back there to meet him any time I so much as think of that garden and the little wooden arched bridge over that perfect babbling brook. What a beautiful, peaceful place to see, to be, to visit. Thank you Lord!

Reflection #2: As I re-read what I just wrote about visiting with Jesus in our garden with the bridge I realize that Peace is just a thought away. I can close my eyes and not just see but be in that place with God Almighty where everything is good, right, safe, exciting and preciously fulfilling. I am complete when I'm connected to Him. Jesus is the bridge between my confining earth-suit existence and eternal eternity. My mind is blown. I can't comprehend but I know it is true and it is good.
